AQHYA has no qualification requirement for attending the Youth World Show in 2021.

Any youth member planning to attend the AQHYA Youth World Show with Team Oregon will pay a $50.00 fee and declare intent by March 15. The declaration is for the youth member. Multiple horses may be declared on one form.

The $50.00 fee will go directly into the youth account. Anyone interested in attending the Youth World Show should declare. This declaration does NOT insure you a spot on Oregon's Youth World Show team nor are you making a firm commitment to attend the Youth World Show. The youth advisor will be given discretion in deciding a members eligibility if they did not sign up by March 15.

I understand that by declaring the classes that I am interested in competing in does not guarantee me a spot on Oregon's Youth World Show team nor does it require that I attend the AQHYA World show in the event that I qualify. The amount of the declaration is $50.00 payable to the OQHYA. Declaration deadline is March 15. All qualifying rules are listed in the OQHYA by-laws.

I also agree that if I qualify for the OQHYA World Show team, I will participate in the following activities:

- Participate in eighty (80) percent of the OQHYA World Show meetings
- Participate in OQHYA fundraisers
- Participate in all Oregon Youth World Show Team activities (parade of states, stall decorating, team photo, etc) at the AQHYA World Show.

Failure to comply with the requirements could result in the youth not allowed to compete at the AQHYA World Show or receive funds from the OQHYA at the desecration of the Youth Advisor(s).
