

New Vendor Approval Process

As we enter our new show season, the OQHA will be evolving the way we approve/assign vendor space. We intend to create a standard method of approval to insure our exhibitors have the diversity of products they want available as well as try to create a healthy and balanced vendor community. The new criteria for the vendor approval process will be as follows:

1. All vendors must submit a vendor profile to the OQHA vendor committee. This profile will be reviewed by the committee for approval. One profile is all that is necessary UNLESS you change your business profile. Then you will need to submit a revised profile.
2. You must submit pictures of how you merchandise your goods/services with the profile. The more pictures you take the better image the committee will have of your operation.
3. You must be able to arrive/set up by the designated timeline prior to the event provided by show management. Special circumstances may be reviewed and accepted by show management with prior notification.

We are confident that this new approach will be one that will ultimately provide a reasonable marketplace for our valued vendors to sell the appropriate goods/services that our exhibitors have come to expect.
