Discussion Items:

The meeting began with introductions of all in attendance.

- 1. Fling-a-filly: All the youth at the meeting were given at least one bag with their name on it that contained twelve toy fillies to sell for the fling-a-filly fundraiser. Other youth such as Katrina Bilic and Megan Hoellrich had bags designated for them to sell. In order to track whose fillies were whose when they were flung in the hoola hoops the youth were told to write the initials or name of who purchased the toy fillies on the bottom of the toy fillies. Samantha Pratt discussed that in the place of a tie there would be a “toss off,” where the two or more who get in in the farthest hoop possible re-throw their fillies to see who can make it in the farthest hoop once again. The fling-a-filly was to take place during the barbeque at 7 pm on June 22nd.
- 2. Laminating: Kristy Way discussed that the OQHA youth are expected to work one one-hour laminating shift later in the day on the 20th. All of the shifts were signed up for via email. The first shift started at noon and the last shift ended at 4 pm.
- 3. Eugene Pro Rodeo: Kristy Way brought up the idea of the OQHA youth going to the Eugene Pro Rodeo as a group on July 1st. This is the “Tough Enough to Wear Pink Night” at the rodeo so it was conversed that the youth would wear their pink OQHA shirts that say “Pretty in Pink Wicked in Spurs.” It was discussed that if the youth RSVP their admission into the rodeo would be paid for by the club.

The meeting adjourned at 10:19 am.

The next meeting would be for the world show team on Friday June 23rd.
